WHAT MOVES US

What moves us...

The seasons come and go. With each new season comes a different form of beauty and togetherness. Autumn brings multi-colored leaves to the vast numbers of trees. Our athletes draw crowds to the fields and the sound of the marching band keeps spirits high. Winter arrives and all is white. We go sledding or snow boarding at North Hill and then get a hot cup of coffee. Spring brings flowers and the air warms us. The Seniors have one last night out and the Juniors host the Prom. Summer begins and we can't wait to hit the beach. A cool breeze rolls in across the water as the waves crash on the shore. The ideal date is an evening stroll across the sand while watching the stars shoot across the cloudless sky.

What moves us...

All of these seasons move me. Each one has its own special virtue. The thing that moves me the most is that, after all of these years, we are still together, enjoying the beauty of our town and of our friendship. As you look through this book and read the captions, anecdotes, and poems, ask yourself what it is that moves you. These memories are priceless! Don't ever forget how wonderful and fulfilling our time together has been. Each and every one of you has moved and inspired me! I truly hope that this book will move and inspire you!

-Tim Meehan

What Moves the Class of '97...

Many things have moved the Class of 1997 –

From blue hair to shaved heads,

From punk to preppy,

From thrift shops to Hilfiger,

From jacked-up Jeeps to run-down heaps,

From Student Chef to Prob. & Stat.,

From chicken parm to salad bar,

From soccer to skateboarding,

From L.L. Cool J to the Dead,

From Bickford's to the beach,

We've all been moved by different things.

We are a diverse class with many interests,

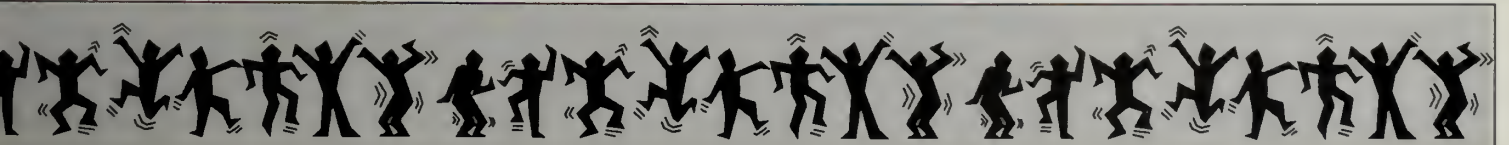

And this is what has made us special.

—Conor Dunleavy

My neighbors, you remember the dawn of youth with pleasure and regret it's passing; but I remember it like a prisoner who recalls the bars and shackles of his jail. You speak of those years between infancy and youth as a golden era free from confinement and cares, but I call those years an era of silent sorrow which dropped as a seed into my heart and grew with and could find no outlet in the world of knowledge and wisdom..." - Khalil Gibran.

This bridge will only take you halfway there
 To those mysterious lands you long to see:
 Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab Fairs
 And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
 So come and walk awhile with me and share
 The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
 But this bridge will only take you halfway there-
 The last few steps you'll have to take alone. -

it's a perfect day for getting wild forgetting all your worries life
 and everything that makes you cry
 let's get happy!
 it's a perfect day for dreams come true for thinking big and doing anything you want to do
 let's get happy!
 'but it's much too late' you say
 'for doing this now
 we should have done it then'
 but it just goes to show how wrong you can be and how you really should know that it's never too late to get up and go

"Art is the telling of stories, and drumming is one of the earliest forms of that art. Just as spoken languages have adapted and changed over time, so too has the language of the drums. The drums themselves are the nouns and verbs, the voices of character and action, while cymbals are the punctuation marks, the modifiers, the shades of narrative and meaning." -Neil Peart - DHS rocks! Ah, senior year! Well it has taken my many hard years of school to reach this final, coveted year. I would like to thank all of my teachers, advisors, and most of all my friends for supporting me throughout the years. I will never forget them as long as I live. Finally I would like to acknowledge my family for their love and support. Without them I could never have reached the goals that I have. Mom, Dad, Sara, thanks for all you have done for me. I love you all. College is only a few months down the read from now and I know I'll make new friends there, but without people like CS and GD (who make everyone laugh) I don't know if I could have survived high school. It is curious to think that the sky is the same for everybody, and that the people under the sky are also very much alike - everywhere, all over the world, hundreds or thousands of millions of people, people ignorant of one another's existence, held apart by walls of hatred and lies - people who have never learned to think but are storing up in their hearts and bellies and muscles the power to one day overturn...this. Strength will change to consciousness, and with consciousness we will rebel. G.O.

Lillian E. Webster

The world is your exercise book, the pages on which you do your sums. It is not reality, though you can express reality there if you wish. You are free to write nonsense, or lies, or tear the pages -R. Back, 'Illusions'

Maria D. Webster

Years go by will I still be waiting for somebody else to understand. Will I choke on my tears 'til finally there is nothing left one more casualty. We danced in graveyards with vampires 'til dawn we laughed in the faces of kins never afraid to burn. Maybe I'm a witch lost in time...

I hear a voice "you must learn to stand up for yourself 'cause I can't always be around" he says when you gonna make up your mind when you gonna love you as much as I do. I tell you that I'll always want you near you say that things change my dear. So many dreams on the shelf you say I wanted you to be PROUD of me I always wanted that myself. There's pieces of me you've never seen well. My HEART is sick of being in chains. Sometimes I hear my voice an it's been HERE silent all these years -Tori Amos.

Green Eggs And Juniors

Just wait, don't fear,
just one more year,
we'll jump and cheer,
when we're out of here!

We'll go to school bringing calculators

then into the world to get employed, and watch the Celtics be destroyed,
and have children and be annoyed!

But we'll remember dis and dat
December 23, what was that?
the Thanksgiving game - we were door mats,
and the pep rally, which was mad phat!

So be polite, say "Yes ma'am,"

Sophomores Move Around

This is a new year for all of us; most of us have grown up and earned our title of "sophomores." No longer do we have to deal with the taunting, cruel remarks from seniors. Our class will be remembered not only by its students, but also for being the last class of the century. We are the class of 1999.

Freshmen Move In

Well, what can you say? From Wa Wa's to the jocks, from the skating boys to the skating girls, these people are in a class of their own. They are the freshmen. They are the smallest ones in the hall, the ones who get thrown into the showers, the best skaters, and the worst comebacks. They are our friends and foes, but we gotta love 'em.

Teaching the right moves...

*“Teaching

"I wish I had never said..."

I wish there were only one thing I wish I had never said!

When I was younger, I wish I had said "no" more!

I wish I never said "No new taxes" because George stole it and took all the credit as I was sitting home reading his lips.

"It's no problem"

Anything said in anger

"My favorite joke is..."

Every day life's experiences give me a better one!

A very long clown joke. Ask me to tell it sometime!

The talking sausage joke!

Two men were painting a big white church but were running out of paint. They decided to add water to what they had left. As they began to paint the back of the church, a loud voice was heard to say, "Repaint and thin no more."

Too many to mention!

I never remember them – I do love political satire and cartoons.

I never remember punch lines! I love to hear jokes, though!

W	Silver Lake	1-0

"The 1996 field hockey team had an exceptional season. When we started this year, expectations were slightly low after having lost 12 seniors to graduation. We set out to prove all those who dared to doubt wrong, but first we had to prove something to ourselves. We turned around our losing record with a 1-1 tie against league powerhouse Dennis-Yarmouth..."

Senior Captains Jen Arthur, Louisa Smith, and Meghan Hern with Coach Saggese

...and from that moment on, as a team, we were unstoppable. We advanced into the state tournament with a winning record and beat Bridgewater-Raynham, 1-0, to advance to the second round. There we lost to the number one seeded Holliston. In the 1996 season we accomplished more than many people thought possible, and in doing so upheld the winning tradition in field hockey that has persisted over the last two decades."

"...We weren't league champs again this year, but that's not really important. We ran competitively at all our meets and still managed to have fun and learn a little about ourselves. We hope for an even better team next year, as most of our members are underclassmen, many running cross country for the first time. These girls have shown considerable improvement this season and will continue to grow and develop in the years ahead."

Supporting Moves

The fact that business plays a vital role in the moral, social, and economic condition of today's society is often overlooked or simply taken for granted. Business, however, is the very engine that moves and motivates us along the proverbial highway of life. Business holds together the fabric of the world in which we live.

Whether it be providing our students with jobs, or generously sponsoring our school's year-book, local businesses have always been there to support us. The Class of '97 would like to express our thanks and appreciation for their generous support.

We would also like to thank our parents for their guidance and support as we have moved through out high school years. We truly appreciate your helping hand.

It has taken all kinds of people to help produce this book which has captured on its pages so my fond memories. We hope you will take time to stop, look, and listen to the story that this book has to tell!

Dear Alex,

As you near graduation, it is time to look back and take note of all your accomplishments along the way. No matter who doubted you, what the struggle or challenge set before you, you never quit. Adversity builds character... a lesson you have learned well.

As you spread your wings, and accept life's next set of challenges, remember to keep focused on your goals, aim high, and drive forward with all that is within you.

THIS BRIDGE

This bridge will only take you halfway there
 To those mysterious lands you long to see:
 Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
 And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
 So come and walk awhile with me and share
 The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
 But this bridge will only take you halfway there—
 The last few steps you'll have to take alone.

GRADUATION

"...In the end, it is not the quality of our memories which will count - it is what we do with them that is important...use your experiences here to create a better world for yourself and others - then you have succeeded at high school."

James Cerne

"Question Authority...those two words captured for me the spirit of the DJSHS Class of 1996...The Question Authority spirit that characterizes you is a thoughtful and intelligent one."

Wayne Ogden

"Taking yourself too seriously is very dangerous...Keep your priorities straight...Make good decisions...Be true to yourself...And, most importantly, never let anyone else tell you what to do."

Eric Thomas

"...And I look at the blossoms in their new home, and I hope someone cares and that someone sees what it was I was trying to do, to give, to say, to be."

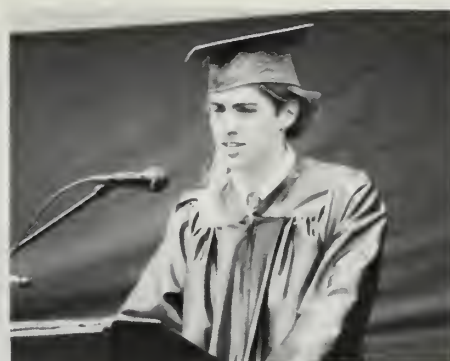

Sarah Albani

"...in graduating we do lose some of the comfort offered by our small community, but what we gain is far greater...we gain the opportunity to discover more about ourselves, to look within and recognize that each of us has limitless qualities, unrealized so far. As we move on we must not only learn to be more open to others, but also to ourselves."

Erin Killory

"I have faith that wherever we make a place for ourselves, and whatever boundaries seem to hold us there, that we will be listening for such a flute."

Nicole Hendriken

What I would pray for you today, if I were to pray, is the courage to stand up to your friends. That you would be able to hear the quiet voice from deep within you that speaks of respect for the sacredness of this world, of the sacredness of every person, of the sacredness of your own body and soul, that speaks to you of integrity and faithfulness, and for you to be able to speak and act from that place within you when your friends are not listening to it.

Robert R. Walsh

BACCALAUREATE

"The true measure of our success, as parents, families, educators and community is how well we have prepared you to fulfill your potential, to become compassionate and moral members of society."

WHERE HAVE ALL THE YEARS GONE ?

BEING THE LINE-LEADER, GOING OUT FOR RECESS, AND FIGHTING FOR THE BACK SEAT OF THE BUS,
 THESE ARE SOME OF THE FONDEST MEMORIES FROM GRADE SCHOOL FOR MOST OF US.
 WE SPENT EVERY DAY FOR SIX LONG YEARS AT ALDEN OR CHANDLER NOT KNOWING EACH OTHER,
 UNTIL WE ENTERED THE MIDDLE SCHOOL AND ALL CAME TOGETHER. IN GRADE SIX WE CONSTRUCTED A BOOK ABOUT DUXBURY, AND WERE IDENTIFIED AS DOWN UNDER OR TOP GUN.
 IN SEVENTH GRADE WE BUILT A FAMILY NICHE, LEARNED ABOUT THE DIGESTIVE SYSTEM, AND HAD AN ECOLOGY DAY THAT WE SPENT IN THE BEACH SUN.
 THEN FOLLOWED GRADE EIGHT, AIDS DAY AT CAMP WING, AND THE SEMI FORMAL WHERE WE HAD SO MUCH FUN.
 WE WERE THE CLASS THAT CLOSED THE DOORS, THE CLASS OF '92. WE WERE THE LAST TO LEAVE D.I.S., THE FIRST TO BE PROMOTED TO THE HIGH SCHOOL TOO.
 THE FOLLOWING AUTUMN WE ENTERED THE HIGH SCHOOL AS FRESHMEN, THE YOUNGEST GRADE OUT OF FOUR.
 ONE YEAR LATER WE WERE SOPHOMORES, THE YOUNGEST NO MORE. AS WE TRIED TO ADJUST TO THE NEW ATMOSPHERE AND WERE INTRODUCED TO EACH NEW THING, WE HOPED TO FIT IN AT PEP RALLIES, AT POWDER PUFF, AND AT CHOOSING HOMECOMING QUEEN AND KING.
 IN OUR JUNIOR YEAR WE GOT TO ATTEND OUR FIRST PROM WHERE THEY PLAYED "FAITHFULLY" AS OUR SONG.
 NOW WE ARE SENIORS...GRADUATING...MOVING ON...
 OUR SCHOOL DAYS ARE OVER...
